Official Script Submission Requirements

All speech participants entered in the Interpretive and Public Address speech events are required to comply with the script submission requirements, which must be submitted to the Tournament Registrar at every official tournament.

Scripts (Interpretations) and Speeches (Public Address) shall be assembled according to the following guidelines.

1. All pages will be stapled together; no paper clips allowed.

○ COVER PAGE:

- All scripts and speeches must have a cover page attached
  - Print and use page 2 of this document as the official cover page

○ CONTENTS:

- Scripts for Interpretation Events must contain:
  - Copy of the title page from the original source
  - Copy of the copyright page with the publication date of the original source
  - Copy of every original source page which includes words used in the interpretive piece
  - All words used in the script; highlighted
  - A typed introduction attached to the script
  - Screenshots – Students who have secured their literary piece from an internet site must create a computer screenshot of the publication date. In addition, one page should include words from their piece to show where the piece came from. The screen shot should include any sidebars, headings, etc., that are a part of the computer screen. The remaining screenshots only need to contain the portions of the text used. Title and publication information is still required if available.
- Original speeches for Public Address Events must contain:
  - A typed copy of the speech
  - A Bibliography, if there are works cited.
  - (Use http://media.easybib.com/ebook/mla\_parenthetical.pdf or other application to help you determine proper citation)

2. Procedure

- The speaker must present the stapled documents to the registrar at the initial check-in date of each tournament/event.
- The documents must be submitted for each tournament/event in order to participate.
- The same documents can be used at successive tournaments/events.
- The documents will be returned in the ballot folder at the end of each tournament/event.
